

Join Zamorano University as:

Instructor – Poultry Research and Teaching Center

Department of Agricultural Sciences and Production
Valle del Yeguaré, Francisco Morazán, Honduras

Why Zamorano University?

At Zamorano University, we transform lives through Learning-by-Doing education and academic excellence. We are a leading institution in agricultural and agroindustrial education in Latin America, committed to innovation, sustainability, and the holistic development of our students. Join our team and become part of a mission-driven community that creates meaningful impact across the region.

About the Opportunity

If you are passionate about experiential learning and eager to contribute to the development of highly skilled professionals, this opportunity is for you.

As an Instructor at the Poultry Research and Teaching Center, you will be part of a dedicated team working to strengthen the reach and sustainability of our academic and productive initiatives. You will play a key role in student training, the development of research and outreach programs, and in fostering strong connections between the Center and the broader academic community. Your work will directly contribute to expanding the Center's impact and supporting the transformative education that defines Zamorano.

Key Responsibilities

- Plan, coordinate, implement, supervise, and evaluate hands-on learning activities under the Learning-by-Doing (Aprender-Haciendo) model.
- Collaborate in the development of the unit's annual operating plan and budget.
- Provide academic tutoring and reinforcement sessions for students when needed.
- Deliver technical talks and training sessions according to established schedules.
- Evaluate student performance on a daily basis and accurately record grades both in physical records and in the academic system.
- Assess student learning outcomes and progress.
- Ensure compliance with student conduct standards established by the Academic Dean's Office.
- Support the development of undergraduate theses and internship programs.
- Submit work logs, overtime reports, and documentation related to raw material usage and resource management, in accordance with monthly accounting close requirements.
- Ensure the continuous maintenance and proper use of all assigned equipment.

What We're Looking For

- Bachelor's degree in Agronomy or a related field.
- At least two (2) years of relevant professional experience in similar roles.
- Strong theoretical and practical knowledge in the area of specialization.
- Experience supervising and mentoring students.

- Familiarity with occupational health and safety procedures appropriate to the nature of the work.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office and basic computer tools.
- Valid driver's license.
