

Accounting Analyst

Vice presidency for Operations and Finance

San Antonio de Oriente, Francisco Morazán, Honduras

Join an institution that develops leaders to transform the world

About the opportunity

The Accounting Analyst position offers an opportunity for a committed, analytical, and service-oriented professional to join one of the institution's key operational areas. This role plays a critical part in ensuring the efficient and transparent management of institutional funds through the accurate allocation, recording, and oversight of financial resources.

The selected candidate will support accounting operations through the proper application of administrative, financial, and budget control processes, contributing to the effective functioning of the Office of the Vice President for Operations and Finance.

Your impact at Zamorano University

The Accounting Analyst will play an important role in maintaining the institution's financial integrity by ensuring transparent processes, reliable accounting information, and compliance with administrative standards.

Through inventory management, budget planning and oversight, report preparation, and financial analysis, this role strengthens the university's ability to make informed decisions and responsibly manage the resources that support the education of future leaders across the region.

Profile we are seeking

Required qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in Accounting, Finance, or a related field
- At least 2 years of professional experience in a related role
- Knowledge of accounting and financial administrative processes
- Experience with inventory management
- Experience in budget planning, preparation, execution, and monitoring
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office
- Experience preparing financial or administrative reports

Why Zamorano University?

Zamorano University has more than 80 years of impact across Latin America and is recognized for its academic excellence and hands-on approach to educating professionals committed to agricultural, environmental, and business development. Being part of Zamorano University means joining a community dedicated to preparing leaders capable of developing innovative solutions to the challenges of sustainable development and food security. More than a job, it is an opportunity to contribute to the growth and education of thousands of young leaders and to be part of an institution with regional impact and global reach.

We invite professionals committed to education, innovation, and development to join our community and actively contribute to building a more sustainable future for Latin America and the world.

How to apply

Interested candidates should send the following documents to talentohumano@zamorano.edu

- Cover letter
- Updated résumé
- At least two (2) professional references

Application deadline: March 30, 2026

Non-Discrimination Policy

Zamorano University does not discriminate based on ethnicity, race, religion, gender, or nationality in the administration of its educational and admissions policies, financial aid programs, extracurricular activities, employment practices, or any other institutional activity.